

BIO

Rabab Boulos

Born: 1979

Nationality: Egypt/ Canada

Joined Maersk: 2003

Position: Executive Vice President, Chief Operating Officer (COO)

Executive Vice President Rabab Boulos started her career at Maersk in 2003 and was appointed as EVP - Chief Operating Officer (COO) of A.P. Moller - Maersk in March 2024.

Since joining Maersk, Rabab has held various leadership roles in Cairo, Dubai and Copenhagen within operations, asset strategy and ocean customer logistics. Rabab is known as an empathetic leader who values diversity and high-performance team journeys. She is passionate about strategy, people leadership, and driving a culture of learning & development.

Career summary

Year	Position	Company	Location
2024	EVP – Chief Operating Officer	A.P. Moller - Maersk	Copenhagen
2023 - 2024	EVP – Chief Infrastructure Officer	A.P. Moller - Maersk	Copenhagen
2022 - 2023	SVP – Head of Ocean Customer Logistics	A.P. Moller - Maersk	Copenhagen
2021 - 2022	VP – Head of Network Strategy, Deployment & Equipment	A.P. Moller - Maersk	Copenhagen
2015 - 2021	Senior Director – Head of West Central Asia Liner Operations Cluster	A.P. Moller - Maersk	Dubai
2014 - 2015	Deputy Head of West Central Asia Liner Operations Cluster	Maersk Line	Dubai
2012 - 2014	Head of Business Performance and Cost Management	Maersk Line	Dubai
2008 - 2012	Regional Business Performance Manager	Maersk Line	Dubai
2007 - 2008	Assistant General Manager, Line Economy & Claims	Maersk Line	Dubai
2005 - 2007	Assistant Manager, Capacity Management	Maersk Line	Dubai
2003 - 2005	Trainee	Maersk International Shipping Education (M.I.S.E)	Cairo

Education highlights

Year	Education
2022	Artificial Intelligence: Implications for Business Strategy Program – MIT Sloan School of Management
2019	General Management Program, Harvard Business School
2015	Leading Successful Change – INSEAD Executive Education
2002	Bachelor's Degree, Business Administration & Management General – The American University in Cairo