

English version

Maersk Container Inspection Criteria (short version)

August 2013

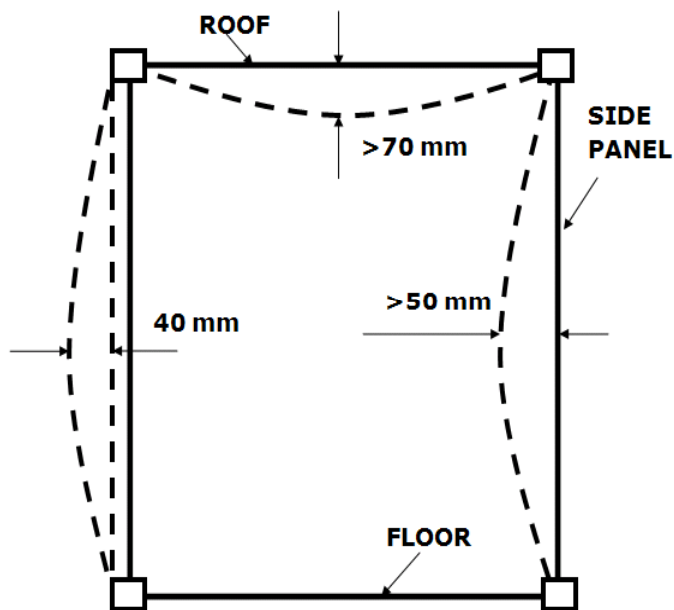

Maersk Container Inspection Criteria

Checked item	Seaworthy condition
Exterior	No strange labels
Interior	Dry and clean No hole, no bad smell Oil stain on floor; rust on roof and panel if any: dry and non-transferrable
Deformation type	Acceptable limit
Dent on panel	Acceptable if internal width doesn't change exceeding 50 mm compared to standard size
Gouge on floor	Acceptable if gouge is not protruded, within 15 mm depth or within 6 mm depth and 150 mm width
Strange stain on floor or panel	Acceptable once dry and non-transferrable. Test by hand or tissue

Maersk Container Inspection Criteria

Illustration 1: Dent on panel

Acceptable if internal width doesn't change exceeding 50 mm compared to standard size.
Dent less than the outer face of corner casting 40 mm

Maersk Container Inspection Criteria

Illustration 2: Gouge on floor

Acceptable if gouge is within 15 mm of depth or 6 – 15 mm of depth and 150 mm of width

Maersk Container Inspection Criteria

Transferrable oil stain

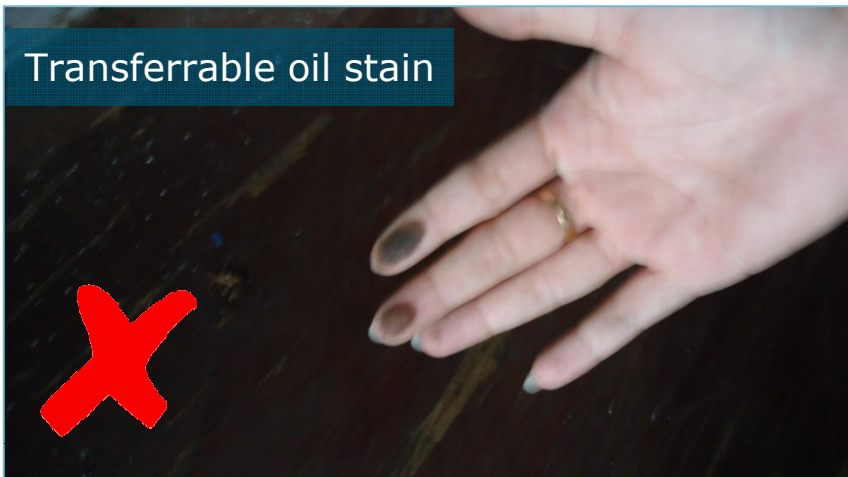

Illustration 3: Oil stain on floor

Non-transferrable oil stain

Acceptable once dry and non-transferrable. Test by hand or tissue.

Maersk Container Inspection Criteria

Illustration 4: Strange black stain on panels or floor

Acceptable once dry and non-transferrable. Test by hand or tissue.

Maersk Container Inspection Criteria

Illustration 5: Rust stain on side panel

Acceptable once dry and non-transferrable. Test by hand or tissue.

Maersk Container Inspection Criteria

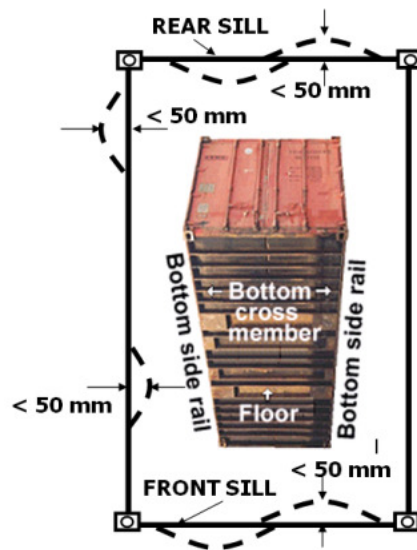

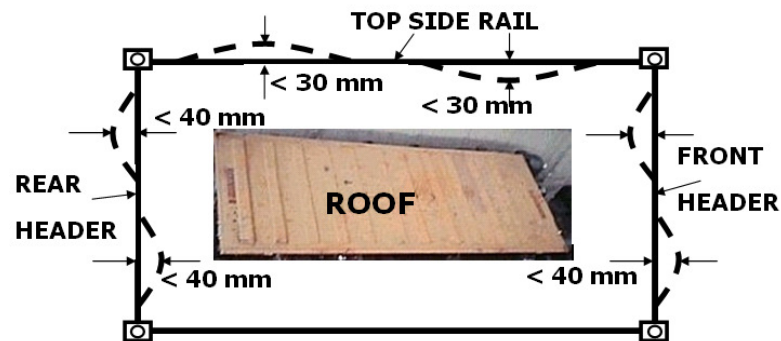

Illustration 6: Deformation on side rail

Acceptable if

- Top side rail deforms within 30 mm
- Front, rear header deforms within 40 mm
- Bottom side rail deforms within 50 mm
- Front, rear sill deforms within 50 mm

Thank you!

Should you have any question, please do not hesitate to contact Maersk Line Equipment team:

- Email Address: Phyrun.kim@maersk.com
- Tel: +855 23 727817
- Mobile: +855 12 550806

